[REDACTED] many South Vietnamese regard the government's reliance on heavy-handed police methods as inexcusable and a sign of weakness.

Meanwhile, the police are discouraged about the government's failure to back them up in their handling of demonstrators. [REDACTED]

25X1

[REDACTED] Their morale may suffer further from a recent government admission that students accused of treason had been tortured during interrogation. Justice Ministry officials have said that four police officials are being charged in the case.
